

Jeffrey T. Foreman

Jeff Foreman is a shareholder in Kenny Nachwalter, P.A., and is resident in the firm's Miami office. He has spent his entire career practicing complex commercial business litigation in both state and federal courts. His practice covers a broad range of contract, insurance, and other business disputes, and includes professional liability and class action defense.

Mr. Foreman is a member of the Florida Bar and has been admitted to practice in the United States District Courts for the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida, and the Districts of Arizona and Maryland. He has also been admitted to practice before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 11th Circuit. Mr. Foreman earned his J.D. from The Washington University School of Law where he served as Notes and Comments Editor of the Journal of Urban and Contemporary Law. He earned his A.B. from the University of Chicago where, in addition to receiving his degree, he won nine letters in three varsity sports.

Practice Areas:

- Complex Business Litigation
- Accountants' Malpractice
- Legal Malpractice
- Securities Litigation
- Architects' and Engineers' Professional Liability

Bar & Court Admissions:

- Florida, 1986
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida, 1987
- Middle District of Florida, 1988
- District of Arizona, 1992
- District of Maryland, 1996
- United States Court of Appeals, 11th Circuit, 1999

Education:

- University of Chicago, A.B. 1982
- Washington University, J.D. 1986

Professional Activities:

- Miami-Dade County Bar Association
- American Bar Association
- The Florida Bar